The following examples illustrate some situations in which a license must be obtained even if the licensee does not maintain a business location on the Reservation:

B. The license shall authorize the licensee to transact the business, trade or activity described in the license application in the locality designated in the license application. If the licensee engages in business or trade at more than one location within the Reservation, a separate license shall be obtained for each location where the business or trade is conducted. Licenses are not transferable. A licensee may designate the location as "Reservation Wide", if the business is of a type generally not stationary (e.g. food vendors, contractors, exterminators).

13.202. Types and Terms of Business Licenses.

A. Annual Business License: Except as provided in Section 13.207.B, an annual business license shall be valid for a period of one year, and a renewal of such a license shall be valid for a period of one year from the expiration of the previous license. If a period of more than one year has elapsed from the expiration of a license to the request for renewal, a new license number will be issued.

B. Enrolled Member Business License: A license issued to an enrolled or to a business owned and operation by one or more enrolled Members shall be valid for a period of two years, and a renewal of such a license shall be valid for a period of two years from the expiration of the previous license. If a period of more than two calendar years has elapsed from the expiration of a license to the request for renewal, a new license number shall be issued.

A person may apply for and be issued multiple special event licenses in a 12 month period. The purchase of any special event license can not be credited toward the purchase of an annual license. A Special Event License application must specify the date(s) the license will be effective.

13.203. Application and Issuance.

If as a result of such investigation, the applicant's (or owner's) character or business responsibility is found to be unsatisfactory, the Treasurer shall notify the applicant that the application is disapproved, that no license will be issued, and that a refund of 50% of the license fee will be made. If the character and business responsibility of the applicant (or owner) is found to be satisfactory, the Treasurer shall endorse and deliver to the applicant his license.

D. The issuance of any business license is contingent on the business being current with regard to the filing of required transaction privilege tax returns and payment of any outstanding taxes, interest or penalties due to the Community.

E. The submittal of the license by mail, in person or electronically is not deemed as authorization to conduct business within the Reservation. Only upon the receipt of a Community business license with an effective date of operation is a business properly authorized to do business within the Reservation.

F. Upon approval of the application by the Treasurer and payment of the fee, a business license shall be issued to the applicant on a form approved by the Treasurer. The business license shall bear the signature of the Treasurer or his authorized representative. 13.718. Deficiency Assessment Procedure.

A. If any person who is required to file a return under the provisions of this title fails or refuses to make a return, or fails to pay the full amount of tax due, or if the Treasurer is not satisfied with the return or payment of tax and additional taxes are determined by the Treasurer to be due, the Treasurer shall deliver written notice of his determination of a tax deficiency to the taxpayer, and such deficiency, plus any applicable penalties and interest, shall become final 30 days after such notice has been mailed and served.

B. If the Treasurer is not satisfied with a return or payment of tax, he may examine the return or examine the records of the taxpayer, and recalculated the amount of tax, penalties, and interest required to be paid, for any periods available to the Treasurer under Section 13.712, based upon any information within his possession or which comes into his possession.

C. If any person fails to make a return, the Treasurer may make an estimate of the amount of tax due and compute any applicable penalties and interest due based upon any information within his possession or which comes into his possession. Any estimate made by the Treasurer is to be made on a reasonable basis. The existence of another reasonable basis of estimate does not invalidate the Treasurer's estimate. It is the responsibility of the taxpayer to prove that the Treasurer's estimate is not reasonable and correct, by providing sufficient documentation of the type and form required by this title or satisfactory to the Treasurer.

13.719. Examinations.

When determining a deficiency or evaluating a claim for refund, the Treasurer may make examination of the books, records, and papers of the taxpayer or any other person who he may believe to be in possession of facts or information pertinent to the subject of inquiry, and may administer oaths as he deems necessary or appropriate in the course of such examination. If no other information is readily available, the Treasurer may make a reasonable estimate of the amount of tax due on the basis of past reports by the taxpayer or by any predecessor, or by any other means deemed reasonable and appropriate by the Treasurer.

13.720. Limits on Examinations, Etc.

A. Upon the Treasurer's completion of an examination relating to a particular tax classification and the determination of a deficiency for such classification has been made pursuant to Section 13.719, the taxpayer's liability for the particular tax for the period subjected to the examination is fixed and determined, and no additional examination may be conducted relating to the particular tax classification except under the following circumstances:

1. The taxpayer files a claim for refund under Section 13.715.
2. The taxpayer failed to disclose material information during the examination, made a material misrepresentation of fact, falsified books or records or otherwise engaged in an action that prevented the Treasurer from conducting an accurate examination.

B. Once the Treasurer issues a notice of proposed assessment of taxes, the Treasurer may not increase the amount of the proposed assessment except in situations in which an additional examination occurs as permitted in Section 13.718.A. or in one or more of the following circumstances:

1. The taxpayer made a material misrepresentation of fact.
2. The taxpayer failed to disclose a material fact to the auditor.
3. The taxpayer failed to provide information as requested by the Treasurer.
4. If, after issuing the notice of proposed assessment but before the assessment becomes final, a decision is rendered in an administrative appeal or judicial proceeding which causes the tax initially proposed to increase.

13.721. Payment Under Protest.

A. If any person feels aggrieved by a tax assessment or believes that any or all of his activities are not subject to a tax imposed by this title, he shall pay the amount of such assessment claimed due before the delinquent date associated with such assessment, as applicable, and shall at that time give notice, in writing, to the Treasurer that all or part of such payment is made under protest, and shall in the notice give the grounds and reasons for such protest and that a certain part thereof, or that the total sum, is protested. Within 10 days of filing the protest notice the taxpayer may appeal the assessment and request an administrative hearing before the Treasurer pursuant to Section 13.722.A.

B. If action has been taken by the taxpayer under protest all subsequent payments due shall be paid on or before the due date. If each tax form is plainly marked "Paid Under Protest," such subsequent payments shall be treated as part of the original protest until such time as remedies have been exhausted or the action withdrawn by the taxpayer.

13.722. Administrative Hearing; Court Action.

A. Administrative Hearing. When a taxpayer files a protest notice, appeals the assessment and requests a hearing before the Treasurer under Section 13.721, such hearing shall normally be held in some suitable room in the principal office of the Community or other suitable place. The Treasurer or his designee shall conduct the hearing which shall be closed to all except the Treasurer or his designee and his authorized representatives, and the taxpayer and his authorized representatives, unless the taxpayer agrees, in writing, to waive restrictions or release of information. The Treasurer or his designee shall provide the taxpayer with not less than 10 days notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing. During the hearing the taxpayer or his authorized representative may present any evidence he deems appropriate to the issues or questions under consideration. In addition, either before or after the hearing, the taxpayer may file a written submission in support of the protest. Within 15 days after the conclusion of the hearing, the Treasurer or his designee shall affirm, modify or vacate any assessment or any decision made with respect to the issues or questions discussed in the course of the hearing. Notice of said decision shall be provided to the taxpayer by the Treasurer or his designee, and said decision shall be effective 10 days after service of notice.

B. Court Action. If, following a hearing pursuant to Section 13.722.A., the taxpayer is then dissatisfied, he may file an action in the Community Court to recover payments made under protest, following appropriate procedures set forth in the Community Code. The filing of a court action shall be made within 60 days after the service of notice of the Treasurer's decision. Failure to file a court action within the required 60 day period shall make the filing null and void and any further protests shall be barred. The court shall conduct de novo review of the Treasurer's decision.

13.723. Tax Liability of Partners.

All taxes assessed upon the business activities or property of a partnership shall be a liability and charged against each and all of the individual partners.

13.724. Tax is a Lien; Procedure.

A. The taxes imposed by this title, if not reported and paid by the due date specified by this chapter, shall constitute a lien on the property of any person liable for the tax.

B. The Treasurer shall give written notice to the taxpayer at his last known mailing address or at the address at which the business is conducted by certified or registered mail. The written notice shall indicate that the Community will enforce a lien on the taxpayer's property unless the taxpayer reports and pays all tax, penalties, and interest past due, or provides satisfactory evidence to the Treasurer that no such amounts are due, within a period of 30 days from service or receipt of said written notice.

C. If the taxpayer does not pay amounts due or provide evidence that such amounts are not due within 30 days after service or receipt of said written notice, or if the Treasurer considers it necessary to take immediate action in order to protect the value of the lien, the Treasurer shall file a "Notice and Claim of Lien" to perfect a lien. Such Notice and Claim of Lien shall be filed with the Community Court or such other office designated by the Community Council to perfect a lien against property located on the Reservation and in such other appropriate filing office to perfect a lien against property located outside the Reservation. The Treasurer shall promptly send by certified or registered mail a copy of such Notice and Claim of Lien to the taxpayer at his last known mailing address or at the address at which the business is conducted. The "Notice and Claim of Lien" shall contain the following:

1. A description of the property subject to the lien which is sufficient for identification.
2. The name of the taxpayer as owner or reputed owner of the property.
3. The amount of the delinquent tax, including penalties and interest, or if this amount cannot be determined precisely because suitable records and books were not made available by the taxpayer, the amount assessed, including penalties and interest, by the Treasurer as authorized by this title when such books and records are not available or are unsuitable.

D. The Community shall have the right to bring an action to enforce the lien in the Community Court or in any other court having jurisdiction over the property, but failure to enforce the lien by such action shall not affect its validity.

13.725. Collection of Delinquent Taxes.

A. If any tax imposed by this title, or any portion thereof, is not paid within 30 days after the same becomes delinquent, the Treasurer shall be empowered to commence action in the Community Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction to collect tax, penalties and interest due, and to utilize any and all appropriate remedies.

B. Every tax imposed by this title, and all increases, interest and penalties thereon, shall become, from the time the same is due and payable, a personal debt from the person liable to the Community and it shall be payable to and recoverable by the Treasurer.

C. If a person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the tax, the Treasurer may collect such tax, and such other sums as are sufficient to cover the expenses of the levy, by levy upon all property and rights to property belonging to the person, or subject to a lien as provided in this title, for the payment of the tax.

13.726. Levy.

A. If a person neglects or refuses to pay any sum for which they are liable pursuant to this title, the Treasurer may collect the liability, and such other sums as are sufficient to cover the expenses of the levy, by levy upon all property and rights to property, except property exempt under Section 13.727, belonging to the person or subject to a lien for the payment of the liability.

B. The levy shall not be made more than six years after the amount of the liability becomes final. The taxpayer and the Treasurer may extend the six year limitation prescribed by this subsection for any length of time by executing a written agreement before the expiration of the six year limitation. If enforced collection has been stayed by operation of law, the period of limitations shall be extended by the period of time of the stay.

C. As used in this chapter, "levy" includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means. Except as otherwise provided in Section 13.726 E, a levy extends only to property possessed and obligations existing at the time of the levy or within 21 days after the date of the levy. In any case in which the Treasurer may levy upon property or rights to property, he may seize and sell the property or rights to the property, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible.

D. If any property or right to property upon which a levy has been made under Section 13.726. A is not sufficient to satisfy the claim for which the levy is made, the Treasurer may as often as may be necessary proceed to levy in like manner upon any other property liable to levy of the person against whom such claim exists, until the amount due, together with all expenses, is fully paid.

E. The effect of a levy on salary or wages payable to or received by a taxpayer is continuous from the date the levy is first made until the liability out of which the levy arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable.

F. With respect to a levy described in Section 13.726 E, the Treasurer shall promptly release the levy when the liability out of which the levy arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable and shall promptly notify the person upon whom the levy was made that the levy has been released.

G. If a levy has been made or is about to be made on any property, or right to property, any person having custody or control of any books or records containing evidence or statements relating to the property or right to property subject to levy shall, upon demand of the Treasurer, exhibit such books or records to the Treasurer.

13.727. Property Exempt from Levy.

- A. The following property is exempt from levy:
1. The personal residence of the taxpayer.
 2. Wearing apparel and school books as are necessary for the taxpayer or members of his family.
 3. So much of the fuel, provisions, furniture, personal effects, firearms for personal use, livestock and poultry as does not exceed the aggregate value provided for in section 6334 of the federal Internal Revenue Code and any successor provision.
 4. So many of the books and tools necessary for the trade, business or profession of the taxpayer as do not exceed in the aggregate the value provided for in section 6334 of the federal Internal Revenue Code and any successor provision.
 5. Mail, addressed to any person, which has not been delivered to the addressee.
 6. If the taxpayer is required by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, entered prior to the date of levy, to contribute to the support of his minor children, so much of his salary, wages or other income as is necessary to comply with such judgment.
 7. Any amount payable to or received by an individual as wages or salary for personal services, or as income derived from other sources, during any period, to the extent that the total of such amounts payable to or received by him during such period does not exceed the applicable exempt amount determined under Section 13.727.D.

B. The official seizing property of the type described in Section 13.727.A. shall appraise and set aside to the owner the amount of such property declared to be exempt. If the taxpayer objects at the time of the seizure to the valuation fixed by the official making the seizure, the Treasurer shall summon three disinterested individuals who shall make the valuation.

C. No property or rights to property shall be exempt from the levy provided in this article other than the property specifically made exempt by Section 13.727.A.

D. The following wages, salary and other income payable to or received by an individual are exempt from levy under Section 13.727.A.6.:

1. In the case of an individual who is paid or receives all wages, salary and other income on a weekly basis, the amount of such compensation received during any week which is exempt from levy is the amount determined pursuant to section 6634(d) of the federal Internal Revenue Code and any successor provision and which is verified in such manner as set forth in section 6334 or such successor provision.
2. In the case of any individual not described in Section 13.727.D.1., the amount of the wages, salary and other income payable to or received during any applicable pay period or other fiscal period, as determined under rules prescribed by the Treasurer, which is exempt from levy under Section 13.727.A is an amount, determined under such rules, which as nearly as possible will result in the same total exemption from levy for such individual over a period of time as the individual would have under Section 13.727.D.1. if, during such period of time, the individual were paid or received such wages, salary and other income on a regular weekly basis.

13.728. Surrender of Property Subject to Levy.

A. Any person in possession of, or obligated with respect to, property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made shall, upon demand of the Treasurer, surrender such property or rights to property or discharge such obligation to the Treasurer, except such part of the property or rights to property as is, at the time of such demand, subject to an attachment or execution under any judicial process.

B. A person who fails or refuses to surrender any property or rights to property, subject to levy, upon demand by the Treasurer, is liable in a sum equal to the value of the property or rights to property not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of taxes for the collection of which such levy has been made, with costs and interest computed at the rate and in the manner provided under Section 13.710 from the date of such levy, or, in the case of a levy described in Section 13.726.E, from the date such person would otherwise have been obligated to pay such amounts to the taxpayer. Any amount, other than costs, recovered under this subsection shall be credited against the tax liability for the collection of which the levy was made.

C. A person in possession of or obligated with respect to property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made who, upon demand by the Treasurer, surrenders the property or rights to property, or discharges the obligation, to the Treasurer or who pays a liability under Section 13.728.B is discharged from any obligation or liability to the delinquent taxpayer with respect to such property or rights to property arising from the surrender or payment.

D. As used in this section, "person" includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to surrender the property or rights to property, or to discharge the obligation.

13.729. Notice and Sale of Seized Property.

The notice of sale and sale of property seized by the Treasurer under this article shall be conducted in the manner and the time and with the legal effect provided for in section 6335 of the federal Internal Revenue Code and any successor provision relating to the sale of seized property by federal tax levy.

13.730. Injunctions.

No injunction shall be awarded by any court or judge to restrain the collection of the taxes imposed by this title or to restrain the enforcement of this title.

13.731. Unlawful Acts.

A. It is unlawful for any person or for any officer or agent of any company or corporation to fail or refuse to make the returns and to pay the tax provided to be made by the provisions of this title, or to make or permit to be made any false or fraudulent return or false statement in any return required by this title or for any reason to aid or abet another in any attempt to evade the payment of the tax, or any part thereof, imposed by this title or for any person or officer or agent of a company to fail or refuse to permit the examination of any book, paper, account, record, or other data by the Treasurer as required by this title or to violate any of the other provisions of this title and any such person, officer or agent of a company, corporation or association is guilty of an offense and shall be fined in an amount not to exceed $500 or be imprisoned for a period not exceeding 90 days, or both, for each offense; and the Community may institute such civil action and impose such civil penalties as is necessary to enforce the provisions of this title.

B. In addition to the foregoing penalties, any violation of this title shall be grounds for the revocation or cancellation of any business license, permit, lease or contract issued to the violator by the Community; and shall also be grounds for excluding the person, company or corporation from the Reservation.

13.732. Successor Liability.

Transferees of property of a taxpayer, including but not limited to donees, heirs, legatees, devisees, and distributees, shall be liable for the taxpayer's tax liabilities hereunder in situations in which assets are transferred to the transferee for less than fair market value, such as in a liquidation, gratuitous transfer, bargain sale to a related party, or fraudulent conveyance, or in which the transferee succeeds to the taxpayer's liabilities as a matter of law, such as in a merger. Such liabilities may be either as to the amount of tax shown on a return or as to any deficiency or underpayment of any tax. Such liabilities shall be assessed, paid, and collected in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as in the case of the taxes with respect to which the liabilities were incurred. The period of limitations for assessment of the liabilities of a transferee shall be within one year after the expiration of the period of limitations for assessment against the transferor. The burden of proof is on the Treasurer to show that a person is a transferee liable for the taxpayer's tax liabilities and is on the transferee to show that the taxpayer has no tax liabilities.

13.733. Compromises.

The Treasurer shall have appropriate authority to settle disputes in examinations, administrative appeals, and court cases. A settlement agreement must be in writing and based on a thorough assessment of the merits of the dispute, as well as on the taxpayer's ability to pay and other collection risks, if applicable. Subordinates of the Treasurer may enter into a settlement agreement only with the approval of the Treasurer, and after presenting a written report of the basis and reasons for the proposed settlement. A settlement agreement may address the effect of the settlement on future tax periods if the Treasurer deems it appropriate in the interests of tax administration. The Treasurer shall provide a quarterly report regarding settled cases to the Community Council.

13.734. Installment Agreements.

The Treasurer shall have discretion to enter into installment agreements with taxpayers in cases in which the Treasurer believes such an agreement will promote the Community's interests in tax collection. In order to qualify for such an agreement, a taxpayer must make full disclosure of his financial condition, such disclosure must show that the taxpayer cannot pay the entire deficiency or assessment in a lump sum but can pay such amount over time under the terms of the agreement, provide for interest computed following Section 13.710.C., and give the Treasurer the ability to terminate the agreement in the event of default or in other circumstances appropriate to the interest of tax administration. The Treasurer shall provide a quarterly report regarding installment agreements to the Community Council.

13.735. Severance Clause.

The provisions of this title are declared to be severable and if any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this title shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unlawful, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections, sentences, clauses and phrases of this title, but they shall remain in effect, it being the Community Council's intent that this title shall stand notwithstanding the invalidity of any part.

13.736. No Waiver of any Tax.

Except for compromises otherwise permitted under this title, no waiver of any tax or interest provided for and described in this Title shall be granted to any person.

13.737. Rules and Regulations.

The Treasurer is authorized to formulate rules and regulations and procedures necessary to the efficient enforcement of this title, and when approved by the Community Council such rules, regulations, and procedures shall be binding upon and obeyed by all persons subject to this title. A copy of all rules and regulations shall be furnished to any person subject to this title upon request.

13.738. Effective Date.

This ordinance, and any amendments to this ordinance, shall become effective the 1st of the month immediately following approval by the Secretary of the Interior.
