WELCOME TO THE GRIC SECURE FTP (SFTP) SITE for PROPERTY AND SUPPLY.

You have been authorized with the following account information in the attached e-mail. This site uses the secure (https) protocol for transferring files between the Gila River Indian Community and your organization.

When you have established a connection to the Secure FTP site the "Left Panel" is your directory on your local computer. This directory is only shown to you and GRIC has no access to any of your files on your local computer. The "Right Panel" is the directory of the SFTP site that you have been assigned. You will be given specific permissions to the directory on the "Right Panel".

SFTP uses a Java client. In some cases you will be prompted to install a Java client.

Instructions: Secure FTP Transfer.

• From your Web Browser, input the site address above into your address bar and select "enter".
